

*The UCSB English Department Announces
The 2011*

Jenkins-Stark Award

Awarded to a graduating senior in recognition of undergraduate research excellence

The Department of English is accepting applications from graduating English majors for the $500 Stark-Jenkins Award for undergraduate research excellence.

The award will be based on a sample of your work, a faculty endorsement, and your GPA in English.

Submit applications to Nick Alward by Friday, April 8, 2011.

1. Submit the application (on reverse)
2. Submit a sample of your work (7 to 10 pages). It may be new work or a paper written for a course. The sample should have the title and the pages should be numbered. It should not have your name on it anywhere.
3. Ask a faculty member to sponsor your application (preferably the same one who directed or assigned the sample of work you are submitting). The faculty member should e-mail a 3-sentence endorsement to nick@hfa.ucsb.edu by the application deadline.

Applications will be reviewed and selected by an Awards Committee.

- ❖ Nominated students will be judged on their academic record and on a critical or scholarly essay of approximately 10 pages. This essay can be either a new work or from a course submission.
- ❖ Complete and attach to your essay an application that includes an endorsement of an UCSB English faculty member. These forms are available outside the English Undergraduate Advisor's office, South Hall 3432-B.

All submissions must be delivered to the English Undergraduate Advisor's office located at South Hall 3432-B no later than Noon, Friday, April 8, 2010.
