

The UCSB English Department Announces
The 2011 Short Story Contest for

The Kieth E. Vineyard Honorary Scholarship

This scholarship is given in memory of UCSB alumnus Kieth Vineyard, who graduated in 1985 summa cum laude with a B.A. in History. His friends and family established this scholarship to recognize his courage and grace while battling cancer and to honor his uncompromising character and integrity in matters of friendship and family. Thus, in tribute to his profound love of and gift for writing, this scholarship is awarded yearly to an undergraduate who demonstrates outstanding creative writing skills.

- ✓ The contest is open to all UCSB undergraduates who have registered for at least 12 units in at least one quarter of the 2010-2011 academic year (Fall, Winter, or Spring).
- ✓ Each winning short story will be selected solely on the merits of the submission.
- ✓ First place will receive $600, second $300, and third $200.
- ✓ Entries must be neatly typed and should not exceed 6,000 words.
- ✓ Your name must not appear on the manuscript! Instead, your entry must be accompanied by an entry form, available outside the English Undergraduate Advisor's office, South Hall 3432-B.
- ✓ Only one submission per person.

The deadline for submission is Noon, Friday April 8, 2011. Submit entries to the English Undergraduate Advisor's office in South Hall 3432-B.

I agree that submissions to any University prize contest in no way limits the subsequent sale and publication of the material, as well as the University's right to circulate the work submitted for any purpose including donor review. Previously published materials, with the exception of materials that have appeared in campus publications, are not eligible. The university does not hold itself responsible for possible loss or damage here to.

I attest that this entry has not been published, has not been entered in another contest in its entirety or any portion thereof, has not been a winning entry and has not been selected to represent UCSB in this or any other contest. I know that if any of these factors are found to be true, my submission will be eliminated.

I realize that manuscripts will not be returned and that a copy should be submitted and that manuscripts awarded the prize will be filed in the UCSB English Department archives.

I am an admitted and enrolled full-time undergraduate student of UCSB who is a declared English major senior or is an upper-division student with at least 12 units in at least one regular quarter of the current academic year (not including Summer Sessions). I know that filing for a degree does not constitute enrollment for that academic year.
