

The UCSB English Department
Announces the 2022

William and Marjorie Frost Memorial Award

For Academic Excellence and Best Critical or Scholarly Essay

The Department of English is accepting the nominations of and entries from UCSB English majors who are seniors or at the upper division level for the annual William and Marjorie Frost Memorial Award for demonstrated academic excellence.

A $700 award will be given in memory of English Professor William Frost, renowned scholar and editor of the works of John Dryden at UCSB from 1951-1988, and his wife Marjorie Pangburn Frost, noted artist and Civil Rights activist.

Nominated students will be judged on their academic record and on a critical or scholarly essay of approximately 10 pages. This essay can be either a new work or from a course submission.

1. Complete the application form.
2. Include your critical or scholarly essay with the application. It may be new work or a paper written for a course. The essay should have the title and the pages should be numbered. It should not have your name on it anywhere.
3. Ask a faculty member to sponsor your application (preferably the same one who directed or assigned the essay you are submitting). The faculty member should provide a brief 3-sentence endorsement that attach to entry.

All submissions should be entered on the English Department Contest Page no later than:
